Report on the Second Internal Review BCS Project

for the period of March - June, 1998
(June 22 - 23, 1998)

1. Introduction

An internal review of the BCS Project was undertaken in February, 1998. At that time it was decided that the BCS project will implement a monitoring system to ensure that ~~continuous review and~~ evaluation of progress becomes an integral part of the project.

In addition to above changes, the team has been relocated, to be housed in the
