

INTRODUCTION

Following the following stakeholders were constituted:

policymakers, community members, civil society organizations, and experts in coastal management.

These stakeholders developed a set of recommendations for coastal management.

The recommendations include:

strategies, standards, and guidelines for coastal management.

These recommendations will be used to guide coastal management in the future.

The recommendations include:

strategies, standards, and guidelines for coastal management.

These recommendations will be used to guide coastal management in the future.

The recommendations include:

strategies, standards, and guidelines for coastal management.

These recommendations will be used to guide coastal management in the future.

The recommendations include:

strategies, standards, and guidelines for coastal management.

These recommendations will be used to guide coastal management in the future.