

New Members admitted in Part II of the 108th Council meeting (January 2023)

During its 108th Council meeting (held in two parts), the IUCN Council admitted 11 new IUCN Members to the Union in the second part of the meeting. Three of these were from the Asia region as follows:

The Council, President, Director General, Regional Director and entire Union extend a very warm welcome to the new Members and look forward to their active involvement.

South and East Asia

Tanah Air Beta, Indonesia

Tanah Air Beta (TAB) was established in 2016 by a group of action-researchers and conservation & development practitioners interested in addressing conservation and development challenges at the landscape scale.

Ujayalo Nepal, Nepal

Ujayalo Nepal (Bright Nepal) is a non-governmental, non-profit, grass-root level and service-oriented organization established in 2008 by efforts of like-minded conservation oriented and socially recognized group of people in Bardia.

Women for Conservation, Nepal

Women for Conservation is a non-profit organization established in 2016 and is led by a qualified, experienced and passionate small team of women that remains always attentive to environment and biodiversity conservation.