

At the international level, Just Transition featured in climate negotiations since COP15 in Copenhagen in 2009, spearheaded by the International Trade Union Confederation.[xv] The Paris Agreement in its preamble takes into account “the imperative

