

Species

ISSUE 64

of the IUCN Species Survival Commission and Secretariat

Mission statement

The mission of the IUCN SSC Marine Conservation Committee is to enhance and maintain the effectiveness of marine conservation. It provides technical knowledge and decision-making support, and links the IUCN Species Survival Commission (SSC) with national governments, academia, and the public to manage marine resources.

Projected impact 2021–2025

The Marine Conservation Committee will lead and

COMMUNICATE

T-012 Communicate Marine Conservation Committee Knowledge.
Status: On track

Activities and results 2023

ACT

Technical advice

T-013 Provide expert input on marine issues to SSC and IUCN. (KSR 10)

Number of technical consultations provided concerning: 2

Relevance: MCC provided detailed comment on the UUU Fishing/Biomass Fishing Sustainability Assessment prepared in IUCN Ocean Commission meeting, attached.

T-014 Provide expert input on marine issues for MEAs and other regional or global bodies. (KSR 10)

Number of technical consultations provided
concerning: 1

Relevance: Head of Area Case Management in the International Marine

