Request for Proposals (RfP)
Publication metrics and monitoring

Knowledge Management, Learning, and Library Services Team
RfP Reference: IUCN-24-09-P00088-2

Part 1 – Introduction

IUCN It provides public, private and governmental organisations with the knowledge and tools that enable human progress, economic development and nature conservation to take place together. Towards this end, IUCN publishes between approximately 30-90 publications with ISBNs per year; the IUCN Library System currently contains nearly 2000 IUCN publications with IUCN ISBNs.

Part 2 – project - eel communication similar organisations.

e- 207 ack st of   IN plcations   on ta IN ts, alih   a nding pg   , and %th ISB and D   rebased on ta IN bsis (apoimately   20 (pr yar)   from ta ation based on uptake, influence and reach, with displayed on each publication's landing page; ff to explore publication performance at

al publication levels;
nall number of IUCN staff in the use of the

h IUCN IT and library staff) as well as call-down ublications and have the option of interacting lications against 5 leading conservation faculties ation organisations that have a good reputation in ling pages at https://portals.iucn.org/library/. IUCN outputs with DOIs hosted on other sites (for example, the IUCN Red List of Threatened Species and PARKS Journal) are for the moment not under consideration

HTML metatags are used to identify some of the metadata fields associated with the publication on each publications landing page (see, for example, https://doi.org/10.2305/IUCN.CH.2020.16.en). An XML feed of recently catalogued publications can be accessed via https://portals.iucn.org/library/pubexport, or various other types of exports at https://portals.iucn.org/library/libexport.