crane world, in part because Jim was always so supportive and giving of his time. As an incredible mentor, guide and confidant, Jim leaves behind many people, all over the world, who have benefited, flourished, and been inspired by his example.

Thank you, Jim, for decades of dedication and the legacy you have left for us all to continue forward for the conservation of the world's cranes. Thank you for your unfailing friendship to so many around the world.

Jim will be also remembered fondly for his passion for taking photos of the people, cranes and landscapes in the places he visited around the world. This photo, taken at Muraviovka Park in Far-eastern Russia, captures his love for landscapes and the perfect shot.
