

Building capacity for conservation action

Veronika Ferdinandova
IUCN SEE

Belgrade, 21 December, 2011

The project

- Contracting Authority: Royal Norwegian Embassy in Belgrade
- Budget: 53 000 EUR
- Duration: 18 months (start date November 2010 end date April 2013)

Applicant/lead partner:

IUCN Programme Office for Southeastern Europe

Partners:

- In Serbia – Young Researchers of Serbia
- In Montenegro - Center for Protection and Research of birds of Montenegro

Overall objective

The project aims at improving information flow and capacities of CSOs and institutions responsible for nature conservation in Serbia and Montenegro for the implementation of conservation policies and action

Activities

- Identification of partners
- Seminar on fung966 0 /CS1 cs 00/TT100/TT249I12

Activities

- Project advisory module elaboration of 10 small size project proposal with the assistance of the project team
- Improving the information flow and improve the outreach of the IUCN SEE Bulletin including monthly email service
- Project closing event

Long term effects of the project

- Increased capacities of project beneficiaries will be exemplified by the number of quality project proposals;
- More effective funds' absorption and improved skills for project implementation;
- Synergetic effect with other relevant processes pertaining nature policies in the target countries will be established;
- Improved communication platform will stay operational after current project's completion.